

Attention FDA

5572 '00 MAR 22 AIO:27

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

No, if so yes

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

You are wasting your money on any brand but the one I prescribe or sell.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

No,

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

Yes, The answer is money, money to the Drs. and hearing aid Mfg. ind. My $300.00 hearing aids are comparable in every category to ones costing from $1500.00 to $3000.00, and why should a hearing aid cost more than a 30 inch T.V.?
